3. Any variation in pupil contact time downward shall not be considered as a precedent setting practice. The Board shall make all teacher assignments within the context of the approved school day for each building as per N.J.S.A. Title 18A and the New Jersey Administrative Code.

4. All elementary school teachers shall be required to do supervisory duty of no more than 90 minutes per week. Beginning no later than March 1, 1990, no elementary school teacher shall be required to perform duty during their lunch period. The Board shall engage a sufficient number of para-professionals to carry out the program. It is the Board's intention not to use teaching personnel; however, when an emergency situation arises, a volunteer among the faculty can be sought. An emergency situation shall be defined as the absence of a qualified person. Should a volunteer not be available, a faculty member may be assigned on a prescheduled rotation basis. The faculty member so assigned shall receive $12.00 per half hour as compensation.

5. During the period any teacher under this subparagraph who is assigned to teach more than five academic classes per day or twenty-five academic periods per week shall not have any other assigned duty including homeroom. As an example, if a teacher teaches 5 ½ periods, said teacher shall have no other assigned duty, including homeroom. In the second semester, if said teacher has five academic periods per day, he may be assigned a non-academic assignment including homeroom.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Board of Education may assign sixth grade teachers to six academic teaching periods. In the event of said assignment, said sixth grade teachers teaching six academic periods per day shall be paid additional compensation equal to one-eighth of their present salary.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary and for clarification purposes, teachers who teach C.I.E. Program in Industrial Arts and Distributive Education Programs shall continue as in the past.

D. 1. Elementary classroom and special area teachers shall receive duty-free preparation time periods as is the current practice. Such preparation time shall be equal for teachers assigned to all elementary buildings. The enumeration below is on the elementary school work day schedule, assuming a full day work week which is non-cumulative as follows:
